Cable News SCHEME TO BAR DUKE OUT

STOCKHOLM, July 8.—If the objections filed by the German contestants in the Olympic games had been sustained by the jury hearing the various protests, Duke Kahanamoku of Hawaii, the American representative for the 100-meter swimming contest, would have been disqualified from the finals altogether and not given a chance to swim his preliminary heat over again. Kahanamoku won the trial heat easily, distancing his opponents and establishing a new world's record. Through a misunderstanding on the part of the swimmers the heat was found to have been swum under conditions which failed to conform to the rules and the results were cancelled.

When this action on the part of the sports committee in charge was announced, an announcement came also that the heat would be reswum. To this the German swimmers took exception, claiming that all the swimmers in that heat should be barred from all further participation in the 100 meters, and the matter was sent today to the jury.
Later the jury announced that in the interest of good sport, and in order that the official winner of the event might be in fact as well as name the world's champion, the heat would be swum over again and the winner made eligible to compete in the finals. This decision has been received with general satisfaction. Kahanamoku's feat having made him a great favorite with both visitors and residents of the Olympic City.

COMPROMISE TO SAVE PARTY.
WASHINGTON, July 8.—Believing that it is not yet too late to bring the shattered ranks of the Republican party together for a harmonious campaign this fall against the Democrats, headed by Governor Wilson, a majority of the Republican congressmen and many of the federal office holders here have decided upon a plan of action, whereby there could be a united party once more, under a leader around whom all might rally. The plan, which is to be launched as a national movement, is to petition President Taft to withdraw from the contest for the Presidency, and, if the idea gains impetus throughout the country, to petition Colonel Roosevelt to also withdraw from the race and to abandon his plan for a third party, so that a compromise candidate may be put into the field.
It is generally believed that such petitions would be signed by very many Republicans and would have a very potent effect upon both President Taft and Mr. Roosevelt, calling upon them both, as they would, to leave the field clear and allow the way open for party harmony. Each would be appealed to to save the party from defeat in the coming elections. It is thought that the President would be influenced by the fact that he won the bitter fight at Chicago, while Mr. Roosevelt might be induced to see that his duty to his old party also calls for his personal effacement from the campaign, while his present plans mean a strong probability of Democratic success.

DRAMATIC SCENES
END LONG TRIAL
VITERBO, Italy, July 8.—The Camorra trial, which has lasted for more than a year, came to an end yesterday, amid scenes dramatic enough to mark the conclusion of what has been the most famous criminal trial in history. Six years ago the ringleaders of the Naples organized crooks, thugs and bandits were arrested, charged with one double murder and a series of other crimes. Today eleven of them were sentenced to various terms in jail. Since their arrest, several have died. Two have died since the trial began, while, as the verdict was being read today by Judge Bianchi, one of the principles, De Marinis, cut his own throat and fell bleeding to the floor within the great cage in which the prisoners sat during all their trial. While everything was done to prevent it, it is likely that De Marinis will die.
Eight of the principles, including Sortino, Morra, Di Genuaro, Salvi and Ceranto, accused of being directly implicated in the murders of Cuocolo and Maria Cutinelli, were found guilty but with a recommendation that the extreme penalty be not imposed. Each was sentenced to serve thirty years on the penal island of Favignana. Two other principles were sentenced to ten years each as accessories. Don Ciro Vittasio, the "chaplain" of the Camorra, received a sentence of seven years.
During the excitement following the attempted suicide of De Marinis, the cage of the prisoners was torn to pieces, the prisoners assisting from within the efforts of their friends in the courtroom. The soldier carabinieri had difficulty in separating spectators from prisoners and preventing escapes by the latter.
